Class History

As we look back over our high school years, memories are brought back to us of many happy and joyous occasions.

FRESHMEN

In September of 1955 we hesitantly began our high school career, awed by the seniors and the multitude of new experiences which confronted us. Our first big event was Initiation, held under the guiding hand of the Class of '56. After catering to the seniors all week, we were officially made a part of B.H.S. In the month of May we held our first dance, "In the Still of the Night," in honor of the seniors. This dance brought in the great profit of $1.50. Well . . . it was a start.

SOPHOMORES

With high hopes for a more prosperous year as sophomores, we entered our second year at B.H.S. and soon initiated a new practice by holding our dance, "Big Beat," in the gym.

It was during this year that with heavy hearts we bade farewell to Mr. Rittner, our class adviser, who left us to teach chemistry at New Britain High School. We were very grateful when Mr. Downer took his place, and we anxiously looked forward to the day when we would be juniors.

JUNIORS

Now well-known juniors, we were pleased to find ourselves in the realm of upper-classmen. We shall always remember our first formal dance, "Moonlite Bay," when the King and Queen presented us with our class rings. We suddenly became aware of our rather low financial status and in order to alleviate this condition, decided to start selling refreshments at basketball games. In the spring we held a record hop, "Rock and Roll Rhapsody," which was a great success.

SENIORS

At last we were seniors. Our first social event was initiating the freshmen into B.H.S. This was lots of fun, and everybody had a great time. In order to raise badly needed funds for our treasury, we held several money-making projects which proved well worth our while.

Our Senior Class Play, "The Curious Savage," was held in December and was a great success. We ended our career at B.H.S. with the Senior Ball and Class Night.

Memories of the past four years come flooding to our minds as we march down the aisle. How quickly they have passed! If we are a bit hesitant as we reach for our diplomas, it is only because we realize that we are leaving B.H.S. for good and are a trifle sad. But the whole world awaits us, and we stand at the threshold of the door to the future.

Class Will

- We leave Mr. Downer, appreciating all the help and advice he has given our class and wishing him the best of luck for the future.
- We leave Mrs. Johnson a basket of apple cores.
- We leave Mrs. Deming strolling out of senior English with a giant-sized paint brush to paint her own local color.
- We leave Mrs. Murphy a marriage license guaranteed to last a lifetime. (Lucky guy!)
- We leave Mr. Harris a rose-stained glass window for his music studio.
- We leave Mrs. Corr fully prepared to face life because of her informative occupations sessions.
- We leave Mr. Bates, thanking him for the miles and miles of smiles he has given us.
- We leave Mr. Charland still searching for his lost chords.
- We leave Mr. DiMauro a pogo-stick to make his daily trips from Winsted more interesting.
- We leave Miss Earn a little black book entitled "The Secrets of Edna St. Vincent Millay."
- We leave Mrs. Giannotta an undisrupted filing system.
- We leave Mr. Landry, wondering where he gets all his information.
- We leave Miss Lanctor, remembering those "dry Tuesdays."
- We leave Miss O'Connor, taking the best of her cheerleaders with us.
- We leave Miss LaRocque a "red-cap" to tote her gunnysack to the lunch lines.
- We leave Mrs. Poppel, wishing we knew her better.
- We leave Mr. Lowell's sparkling wit to any deserving young chap.
- We leave Mr. Kilgariff, remembering him as "The Curious Savage."
- We leave Mr. Quinlan inscribing Berlin High School in his golden memory.
- We leave Mr. Dondes, happy that most of us passed American History.
- We leave Miss James as future homemakers.
- We leave Mr. Gibney, thanking him for his excellent instruction in Driver's Education.
- We leave Miss Gallette a free dance course at Arthur Murray's Dance Studio.
- We leave Mr. Kanupa a super-charged safety belt for all the future drivers' cars.
- To Miss Gustafson we leave a special messenger to deliver all her important messages.
- To Dr. Eaton we leave the best of luck, wishing that we knew him better.
- We leave Mrs. Harrison an automatic money counter and a bottle of Bufferin.
- We leave the Cafeteria Staff as hearty boys and girls due to all the good cooking we received.
- To the Maintenance Staff we leave our appreciation for a well-kept school.
- We leave Mr. DeWolfe a quiet and reserved study hall — no seniors!
- We leave Miss Levan nesting up on the hill.
- We leave Mr. Spieler going A.W.O.L. over the hill.
- We leave Miss McBrien, taking with us a certain, special Latin student.
- We leave Mr. Merlino, remembering him as the guiding light of the Art Department.

We leave Mr. Rittner and Mrs. Phyllis Murphy, wishing they had never left us.
 We leave Mr. Nuccio still running the race with a hare.
 We leave Mr. Szandrocha, wishing him luck with the Student Council.
 We leave Mr. Goodrow, admiring his Gillette look.
 We leave Mr. Kevorkian, taking his errand boys with us.
 We leave Miss Rakowski saying, "Who took my time clock?"
 We leave Miss Wohllebe; Willa' be seeing ya!
 We leave Miss Frost a pumpkin patch.
 We leave Mr. Walsh all his dedicated fans with him.
 We leave Mr. Torino, "Torero."
 We leave Mr. Hubert a safe for his tools.
 We leave Mr. Long, thanking him for his understanding ways.
 We leave the eighth grade teachers, remembering the fun we all had on our New York trip.
 We leave Mr. Morano a tela et scutum to combat the masses in study hall.
 We leave the nurses a year's supply of Kleenex.
 To Mrs. McNickle we leave an automatic coffee server.
 Gail Thomas leaves for Julliard carrying her cello in a paper bag.
 Sandy Pearson leaves her record in the Dean's office to Maryann Kerelejza.
 Judy Ramy leaves, still trying to find a way to be everywhere at the same time.
 David Carlson leaves his presence in body to an experimenting laboratory to discover a cure for sleeping sickness.
 Renée LaFlamme leaves, driving to Hungary in her powder-blue Impala.
 Billy Baretta leaves his comical ways to Gregory Golab.
 Jackie Gates leaves her ability for borrowing homework to any underclassman who has not yet become proficient in that art.
 Ed Buzanoski leaves, taking Janet with him.
 Sandy Burava leaves for New York, taking an extra jug of sweet cider with her.
 Ray Bosso leaves his car to next year's Senior Class to smash at the Berlin Fair.
 Sandy Bozek leaves her many shades of lipstick to Rae Graziano.
 Forrest Bowen leaves, correcting his favorite training teacher's spelling.
 Nancy Schoell leaves her hysterical outbursts to Carol Bugay.
 Patty Chesery leaves her short, dark pixie cut to Wilma Lowchy.
 Phyllis Mailloux leaves a roll of life savers to Jerry Chaviaras.
 Emily Peretta leaves her shy and quiet ways to Claire Tonina.
 James Hazlett leaves his over-powering voice to Paul Perry.
 Janet Suomela leaves her recipes for BLT's to the cafeteria staff.
 Richard Spendolini leaves his bop steps to Ray Gallnot.
 Marion Wrobel leaves, strutting her way to the sky.
 Tommy Luby donates to the freshmen a book on "How to Acquire a Tarzan-like Physique" so that future Berlin football teams may be assured of victory.

To Larry Weber the senior class gives a trophy for so successfully avoiding the attentions of the opposite sex.

We leave a large dose of chloroform to any person who does not think that our class is just about the best there ever was.

To the freshmen we leave a collection of old shoes so that they may follow in our footsteps.

Marjorie Zuk leaves her excessive sweetness to the Domino Sugar Refining Company.

Ruth Strand leaves her flirtatious ways to any female who thinks she can get by with them.

John Whalen leaves his love for speed on the open road to the Connecticut State Troopers.

Jeff Klenski leaves his new book, "The Women in My Life," to all his dedicated fans.

Roberta Kayser leaves her place in front of the mirror in the girls' room to any underclassmen who wish to acquire that "flawless" look.

Marilyn McGrath leaves with her pony tail hanging behind.

Roger Naldi leaves his book, "How I Hit the Target Ten Times Out of Ten," to any junior who is not successful in the art of shooting elastic bands the new way.

Barbara Hulten leaves her long basketball reach and athletic ability to Kathy Bidwell.

Carman Recck leaves his extensive vocabulary to the descendants of Noah Webster.

Billy Hall leaves, sweating over his basket of ironing, munching occasionally on his tranquillizing pills.

Pat Romanowski leaves her unique formula for "you-know-what" to Margaret Dodson.

Rachel Begin leaves, still hunting for her lost Christmas box.

Richard Padelli leaves four "stop and go" traffic signals to be installed at strategic points along the corridors.

Susan Gay leaves her wide-eyed air of innocence to Joyce Aldrich.

Jerry Bittner leaves his fantastic dancing ability to David Lorrie.

Pat Bodach leaves, stealing two dollars from the senior treasury to purchase a marriage license.

Ray Boisvert leaves his "get-up-and-go" as an advertisement for the Geritol Company.

Charles Carter and Wally Suffish leave calling CQ, CQ, 88's to any female ham within hearing distance.

Rita Hoffman leaves her out-going personality to Richard Bighinatti.

David Craig leaves his curly locks to the Toni Home Permanent experimental laboratories.

Betty Czerwinski leaves a gap in the will because of her Fife and Drum Corps activities.

Bill Riedel leaves the fog which enveloped him for four years to Bruce Pavlech.

Charlene Myers leaves her Girl Scout handbook, "Scouting for Boys," to Roberta Beecher.

Morie Williams leaves, still battling the referees.

Marge Church leaves, switching from New York to POP with a boom.

David Dary leaves his ability for making excuses to the officials at Cape Canaveral Proving Grounds.

Bob Malina leaves his line to the Southern New England Telephone Company.

Calvin Davis leaves, starting his campaign for future fire chief of Berlin, Connecticut.

Gary Waslewski leaves his skyscraper-view to Larry Shubert.

David Bolles leaves, still saying that he'll be back again to try next year.

Vicki Boone leaves, a changed person.

Edith Ruck leaves, striving for the millionth hour in her volunteer work at New Britain General Hospital.

Sandy Roncaioli leaves as a little whiz on the basketball court.
 Keith Schinderwolf leaves, tip-toeing out the door.
 Colette Perusse leaves a beaten path to Canada to any student of French descent.
 Irene Radion leaves her delicate ways to Veronica Bochan.
 Joyce Pernal leaves, patenting an unbreakable test tube for New Britain General Hospital.
 Stanley Pajor leaves, taking his "Coooo-kie" with him.
 Gary Riedel leaves his name "Legs" to Ricky LaFlamme.
 Marge Roach is leaving—"Does anyone have money for his dues?"
 Sherman Root leaves, taking the lost second gear of the Drivers' Ed. car with him.
 Dorothea Ross leaves her knowledge of all the back roads to Southington to Barbara DiPinto.
 Janice Wind leaves, breezing out of B.H.S.
 Edward O'Connell leaves his natural red hair to Violet Sherman.
 Cathy Miglietta leaves, hopping from car to car at Sesme's.
 Marian Martin leaves some blind dates at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy to any underclassman.
 Mary Ann Johnson leaves the four "Good Years" she spent in high school to Bishop's Garage.
 Bruce Grant leaves "two empty spaces" in the parking lot.
 Stan Kavarsky leaves his better half behind.
 Albert Lawyer leaves, still trying to put one over on Mrs. Johnson.
 Suzanne Palmer leaves her long hair to "Cookie Gates."
 Roger Swanson leaves his curls to Newell Waldron.
 Elaine Fleming leaves her tiny handwriting to Joyce Mattson.
 Joe Dutkiewicz leaves his massive frame to John Brainerd.
 Bill Douglass leaves his sly look and smile to Pete Catalano.
 Dale Henriques leaves his quiet and intellectual manner to Kenny Munson.
 Jackie Dyer leaves her "halo and harp" for her record in the Dean's Office.
 Maureen Kerin leaves, still panting over the P.A. System.
 Edward Szczepanik leaves his misspelled name to Barbara Smith.
 Joyce Malone leaves her peaches and cream complexion to Gail Russell.
 Albert Lawyer leaves his forward ways to Joy Wallace.
 Judy Michalski leaves her riding boots to any underclassman who can fill them.
 Dennis Fusaro leaves, throwing a line to anyone who wants it.
 Judy Johnson leaves her rosy blush to Susan Deming.
 If Sheff Clarke can clear the top of the door, he leaves his tall frame to Alan Gerdis.
 Pat Audette leaves her gullible ways to Karin Johnson.
 Kathy Dutkiewicz leaves, breathing a long sigh of relief.
 Charles Scheer leaves his stage managing ability to Sam Coale.

The Class of 1959

THE YEAR: 1984

"Good evening! This is CHARLES Cameron Cameron CARTER with tomorrow's news today, broadcasting on Radio Station WCONN.

ON THE NATIONAL SCENE: Newly elected president, CARMEN RECCK, and Secretary of State BILL BARRETTA, left today to attend the ping pong tournament at the luxurious home of the opulent STANLEY PAJOR, well-known philanthropist.

It was announced this morning by CHARLIE SCHEER, Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission that Dr. JOYCE PERNAL, fyzzisist, smashed her first atom and her second finger last night. This marks another big milestone in her fabulous career. Fortunately, her chief assistant, COLETTE PERUSSE, was on the spot to administer medicinal aid to the mutilated finger. Sympathetic ALBERT LAWYER was present to mourn for the broken atom.

FORREST BOWEN is leading an expedition through a newly discovered passage under the North Pole. This expedition is an attempt to prove how the American Indians migrated to this continent from Asia. At last report, the men all agreed that—it was cold! The members of this courageous crew are DAVID CRAIG, RICHARD SPENDOLINI, RICHARD PADELLI, SHERMAN ROOT, GERRY BITTNER, and JIMMY HAZLETT.

Millionaire playboy, WILLIAM "Trujillo" HALL, presented starlet KIM CHURCH (formerly MARGARET) with a DKW as a token of his esteem. Miss Church is presently starring in the motion picture, "The Life and Loves of RENÉE LAFLAMME, Channel Swimmer."

Now a word from our sponsor.

"Buy PPP's—PERRETTA'S Popular Pedios. Here is the new do-it-yourself wrap-around shoe. These shoes are marvelous for your feet and can be purchased at the following tanneries: THOMAS'S Ten Penny Shoe Shoppe, SUFFISH'S Suffering Sandle Store, and HOFFMAN-HULTEN Shoes Inc. Back to the news."

ON THE INTERNATIONAL SCENE: JEFF KLENSKE, the Frank Lloyd Wright of his time, has just finished his twelve-year project of building the first glass bridge, which is located on the River Kwai.

FLASH! Noted fisherman and puddle jumper, SHEFF CLARKE, has just sent word to us that while fishing under the bridge, he discovered—A CRACK!! Mr. Clarke stated that he saw MORIE WILLIAMS, noted geologist, earlier tapping his little hammer trying to get a sample of what he believed to be a new form of transparent rock.

We were also able to get a statement from the Secretary of Agriculture, GIL GRANT, who was in the area of Japan at that time. In his farmer days, Mr. Grant got in the habit of rising early, and so he was fortunate in witnessing this tragedy. He said that while looking out of the window of his room at 6:00 A.M., he saw Morie standing on the bridge with hammer in hand. Gil is staying at the DAVID CARLSON Inne, which is situated beside the new bridge.

NOW ON THE INTERNATIONAL LEVEL: The revolt in Venezuela is growing stronger. Rebel leader, ED BUZANOSKI, is fighting for more rubber because he cannot stretch the present supply far enough. On behalf of Mr. Buzanoski, CHARLENE MYERS, fast talking diplomat, is trying to negotiate terms with the present dictator, JANET SUOMELA. At the present moment the negotiations are at a stalemate.

At the United Nations today, MAUREEN KERIN continued her fight for changing the official language from French to Latin. So far, she hasn't been very successful because RAYMOND BOISVERT, the French delegate to the U.N., insists that French remain the official language.

EDDIE SZCZEPANIK was waiting outside of the Security Council's chamber in order to sell Szczepanik's Suspenders to secure the insecure Security Council. He wasn't very successful.

This noon, ROBERTA KAYSER, U.N. tour guide, jumped from a window of the Secretariat Building, on the 13th floor. It was the office window of LARRY WEBER and DENNIS FUSARO, executive heads of the HSUNCB — Highly Specialized United Nations Custodians' Bureau. As she was on her precarious perch, Police Officer RUTH STRAND made a wild grab for Miss Kayser's arm — but at the vital moment, she was distracted by a handsome male, JOHN WHALEN, who walked down the corridor. Roberta jumped!

On her way down, she was heard saying, "Everybody hates me!" by KEITH SCHINDERWOLF, who was washing windows on the 3rd floor. She was miraculously saved by CALVIN DAVIS and his assistants, GARY RIEDEL, BILL RIEDEL, and ROGER NALDI, who were waiting with a net, below.

DAVID BOLLES, Prime Minister of Holland, flew to New York yesterday, seeking funds from financier MARJORIE RUTH ZUK, to build a new dyke so that CATHY MIGLIETTA and other Dutch citizens could pull their fingers out of the leaky one.

"Time out for a commercial."

"Do the chips seem to be stacked against you? Then you need CHESERY'S Chipping Chisels. Complete satisfaction is guaranteed or all chiseled money is refunded."

We switch to STATE AND LOCAL NEWS: A new all-woman political party has been established in Connecticut by SUSAN GAY, party leader. Her staunch supporters are SUZANNE PALMER, JOYCE MALONE, KATHY DUTKIEWICZ, SANDY BOZEK, PAT ROMANOWSKI, and many others.

Governor TOM LUBY has been trying to exercise the right of eminent domain against stubborn DALE HENRIQUES, who won't sell his duck farm so that the new freeway can go through his property.

MARYANN JOHNSON, postmistress of Berlin, issued a proclamation, stating that in the future, Green Stamps will be given along with regular stamps purchased.

The town of Berlin boasts three queens — VICKI BOONE won the state Blushing Contest; ELAINE FLEMING won the Giggling Contest; and JUDY RAMY was elected Mrs. P.T.A. of the year.

Candidates for the Board of Education of the Town of Berlin presented their platforms last night at the town meeting. RACHEL BEGIN proposed a cut in the teachers' salaries by one half. This proposal was enthusiastically supported by MARIAN MARTIN, chairman of the Board of Finance. JUDY JOHNSON and MARION WROBEL, other candidates for the School Board, proposed that breakfast be served at 8:00 A.M. at school, and three coffee breaks be given during the rest of the school day.

The grand première of ROGER SWANSON'S Downeast Shopping Center is tomorrow. This new center is located on the corner of PAT BODACH Boulevard and EDIE RUCK Road in Berlin. There is convenient parking space at S. BURAVA'S Parkade. One of the new stores is PEARSON'S Peerless Pizza Palace, featuring as one of its specialties, RONCAIOLI Rolly Poly Raviolis.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS: GARY WASLEWSKI, pitcher of the Berlin BOSSO Team, pitched his third consecutive no-hitter against the all-girl Baseball League.

The only time he was in trouble was when he walked BETTY CZERWINSKI to base and when PHYLLIS MAILLOUX got on base because of an error. JACKIE GATES hit into a double play to lose the game. The final score was $(6x + 2)^3$ to -5 . The -5 was due to the fact that the girls ran around the bases the wrong way five times, when they weren't at bat.

MARGIE ROCHE won the Wimbledon Championship today against PAT AUDETTE. IRENE RADION was put out of the peanut gallery for throwing peanuts on the tennis court.

JANICE WIND, MARILYN McGRATH, and JUDY MICHALSKI won the International Hobby Horse Race today, and they received a beautiful trophy. They rode the same hobby horse simultaneously, to a great victory.

ROBERT MALINA and EDDIE O'CONNELL set a new water skiing record. They water-skiied from New York to California doing the hula hoop. DOTTIE ROSS was captain of the boat. They reported that on their journey, they saw JOE DUTKIEWICZ, former Olympic swimmer, teaching a school of fish how to swim.

We have a late news bulletin: Berlin Police Chief, STANLEY KAVARSKY, reported that two girls, NANCY SCHOELL and JACKIE DYER, were brought into the station house tonight for disturbing the peace. It seems that they were located under a street light, opening soda bottles with the aid of the bumper of Nancy's automobile, and were causing considerable disturbance to the neighbors. They were released on bail in the custody of local dentist, DAVE DARY.

Now station WCONN concludes its broadcasting for today, with a goodnight prayer by BILL DOUGLASS.

So ends a great day for the Class of 1959.
